

YUNNAN

DAY 1: FES

On arrival at Fes Airport, you will be met by our representative and transferred to your hotel.

DAY 2: FES-MIDELT-DESERT: We will set off for Midelt via Ifrane - also known as the Moroccan Switzerland; we will stop and rest in the forest of Azrou where we will be able to enjoy watching the monkeys play in their natural habitat, among the millenary cedars, and then we will continue our journey through the Middle Atlas Mountains until reaching Midelt. We will then go through the Ziz Valley and its gorges to reach Erfoud, in the evening, we will get on a camel and travel deeper into the heart of the desert and lose ourselves in its immensity with the aim of spending one night under the stars at kHaima, just like the authentic Berber people, with whom we will enjoy their drum music and a typical dinner

DAY 3:DESERT- TODRA GORGE- BOUMALNES

DADES: We will wake up early to watch the sunrise in the middle of the desert and we will continue on a road with spectacular panoramic views which encircles the dunes of Erg Chebbi. We will have breakfast and rest for a short while in a hotel before heading towards the city of Rissani to enjoy its colourful Souk, we will visit the palm grove of Tafilalet and we will cross the Todra Gorges ending our route in the Dades valley..

DAY 4: BOUMALNES DADES- IMILCHIL:

A spectacular day which we will begin by entering the Dades gorges to later get on a track which will take us through the mountains, valleys and ravines of the Atlas up to Imilchil, a village famous for celebrating the collective wedding ceremony based on the legend of the two lakes found nearby. Overnight stay in Imilchil.

DAY 5: IMILCHIL – FES: We will wake up early in the morning to visit in tranquillity the ISLI & TISLI lakes, where we will find out about the most romantic legend in all Morocco, and then we will continue our journey towards Fez, where we will remain for the rest of the day.

DAY 6: FES. This day will be dedicated to discovering the imperial city of Fez; we will begin our visit at the golden gates of the royal palace, and then, from a high point, we will contemplate the great wall which encloses the astonishing ancient medina which we will later explore in order to experience the different sensations that the city has to offer. Along the narrow streets we will discover mosques and madrasas until entering the tanners' quarter where we will witness the leather treatment processes. Rest of the day off.

DAY 7: FES : Depart at any time to fes airport.

